WHY INDIAN CATTLE SHOW?

The aim of this program is to bring together farmers, animal husbandry, and youth to promote conservation, improved breeding, and cow-based natural farming of Indian cattle. This program will connect the dairy and agricultural sectors across India and help them develop new avenues for sustainable development. It also provides an excellent means for self-reliance by empowering farmers economically. Our heritage will do a great job of passing on the cultural and economic legacy of Indian indigenous cows to future generations. It also conveys the cultural and economic significance of indigenous cows to future generations.

VISION

COW BREEDING

Scientific conservation and cow husbandry of Indian indigenous cow breeds.

COW NATURAL FARMING

Promotion of cow-based organic farming and chemical-free Practices.

COW VILLAGE DEVELOPMENT

Development of self-employment and industries from a cow-based economy

COW BREEDER FAMILY

Living a disease-free life through Gau-Seva and cow-derived remedies.

MISSION

To create a strong and prosperous nation by connecting farmers and cattle breeders with cows, villages, and agriculture. To strengthen the foundation of breeding from village to village for the creation of a good cow lineage in the future. To prepare model farms of cow-based agriculture for the development of cow villages. To adopt cow-based medicines in daily life and to make people resolve to live a disease-free life.
